

Dr Tiffani Razavi

Tiffani Razavi obtained her doctorate in organizational psychology from the University of Oxford in 1999 and since then has been lecturing on topics relating to organizational behaviour and management at the University of Southampton. Her research interests are focused on values and value congruence and the implications of person-environment fit for personal wellbeing. As a Bahá'í, she is particularly interested in the spiritual dimension of work and wellbeing. Dr Razavi has recently come to reside at the Bahá'í World Centre with her husband and daughter and is currently expecting her second child.
